

THE REQUIEM

BIO

Broward County, FL trio The Requiem – Damien [vocals], Felipe [lead guitar], and Salem [bass] – cross-pollinate alternative, emo, and even '80s rock into their own, DNA-distinct style. They ultimately prove what music can be without boundaries. They managed to pile up over a million streams independently with their delightfully creepy compositions. The groundswell of activity captured the attention of rock powerhouse label Fearless Records, who swiftly scooped up the band and signed them to a deal. The threesome next released a pair of fresh singles with "Diary of a Masochist" and "I'll Be Late for My Funeral." With the new tracks, The Requiem further introduced the world to their semi-gothic, darkly romantic, and gloriously creepy music. Layer on the black eyeliner, rip your heart out of your chest, and slap it on your sleeve with The Requiem.
