

BIO

TSS (The Sunday Sadness) is a French Modern Metal band formed in 2018. Thank's to their nu-metal-influenced track "Would You Be My Therapy?", TSS managed to blow up on TikTok at the end of 2023, reaching number 42 in the US rock charts. The band's meticulous Next-Gen gothic aesthetic mixed with the incorporation of French lyrics into their songs have enabled them to stand out on social media and quickly build up a loyal and committed international fanbase. With a string of acclaimed performances alongside Motionless In White, Our Last Night and Asking Alexandria, TSS is preparing to conquer a large audience with their upcoming singles, which they will defend on stage during 2024.
